

California Biodiversity Council
Regional Meeting

Thursday, June 10, 1999

Eagles Hall, 210 N. Corry Street
(corner of N. Corry and E. Alder)
Ft. Bragg, California

R E V I S E D A G E N D A

- 8:00 a.m. Registration and Poster Viewing Session
- 8:30 Introductions and Opening Remarks
Mary D. Nichols, Secretary for Resources, The Resources Agency
Michael Delbar, Mendocino County Supervisor
- 8:45 Council Announcements
- 9:00 Executive Committee Report – Carl Rountree, Bureau of Land Management
- 9:15 Report on statewide watershed planning activities – Maria Rea, Resources Agency
- New spatial data Atlas layers for North Coast Coarse Watershed Assessments - Bill Stewart, CDF Fire and Resource Assessment Program
- 9:45 Break and Poster Viewing
- 10:15 Report from Coastal Salmon Outreach meeting
- Deadly Culverts for Salmonids - Tom Weseloh, California Trout
 - Update on status of potential increase in salmon funding – Maria Rea, Resources Agency
- 10:45 Local watershed and salmon protection efforts: Panel discussion of local needs, experiences, and programs
- Moderators: Michael Delbar, Mendocino County Supervisor and Mark Hite, California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection
- Noyo Watershed Assessment - Dean Cromwell, Department of Forestry and Fire Protection and Rick Macedo, Department of Fish and Game
 - Five-County Effort - Mark Lancaster, Trinity County Planning Department and Don Tuttle, Humboldt County Public Works
 - Watershed Protection: Myth and Reality - Mary Pjerrou, Redwood Coast Watersheds Alliance
- 11:30 Discussants, CBC Dialogue, and Summation: How to build off local watershed and salmon protection efforts with new federal funds

Discussants: Tom Schott, Mendocino RCD and local watershed approach lessons; Stan Dixon, Humboldt County Supervisor; Mel Krebs, District Director, Shasta-Pacific District California Conservation Corps; and Craig Bell, Salmonid Restoration Federation

12:30 p.m. Lunch (reservations required) and Poster Viewing

1:30 Conservation Needs Assessment process: Panel discussion on local conservation assessment efforts

Moderator: Bill Stewart, Department of Forestry and Fire Protection

- Statewide Conservation Needs Assessment – Susan Cochrane, Department of Fish and Game
- Point Cabrillo and Navarro Projects - Julia McIver, State Coastal Conservancy
- Incentives for Conservation of Private Forestlands - Connie Best, Pacific Forest Trust
- State, Federal and Private Landowner Watershed Cooperatives - Rondal Snodgrass, Sanctuary Forest

Discussants: Nancy Barth, Mendocino Planning Commission, and John Gamper, California Farm Bureau

3:00 Break and Poster Viewing

3:15 Public Comment

3:45 p.m. Adjourn